THE CHRISTMAS

PROBLEM SOLVED.
What shall I give the young man or boy for Christmas? This question answered in a practical way by the Young Men's Christian association. For the small sum of $5 a year's pleasure and profit can be given a young man, while $3 will do the same for the boy.

Just think of it: the full privileges of the Y. M. C. A. building for one year for the price of a few dollars. The privileges include gymnasium, shower baths, reading room, various games, such as pool, checkers, chess, ping pong; also social events and receptions, etc.

Just the kind of fellowship a young man or boy enjoys is found in the association building which is in a real sense a downtown home.

Tickets can be made out so as to be presented on Christmas day, and the recipients will have 55 days full of happiness and health.

Full information can be obtained at Y. M. C. A. office. Phone 862.

DAVIS THEATRE.

The Turn of the Road, Five Part Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature, and Nederville's Monkeys, Big Vaudeville Feature for Today.

What promises to be one of the finest photoplays ever seen here is the five part Vitagraph Blue Ribbon production, "The Turn of the Road," which will be shown today and tomorrow, with Joseph Kilgour and Miss Virginia Person as the stars. Most of the mistakes in life are avoidable. Half of our failures are due to the fact that we do not stop to think. In this picture we see a man (John King) who did not think; he deceived his wife; he tried to avoid her; he did not stop at the point of death; he took the wife that would lead to ruin; he knew he was wrong; the entreaties of the sick child bade him stop; he was in the clutches of a vampire. But fate intervenes and he is brought back to his senses when he is running away from his wife and child; the car they are in becomes unmanageable and plunges over a precipice, severely disabling him and his child. He is brought back to his own home, to be nursed back to life again. Can you imagine a more intense or startling situation? What does his wife do? What does he do? You will see the answer to this solution in this wonderful picture.

The vaudeville feature for the first half of the week is Nederville's Monkeys, one of the cleverest animal acts in vaudeville, giving a remarkable exhibition of motorcycling and bicycle riding on a saucer track that occupies the whole stage. This act has been a big sensation wherever they have appeared and that they will be a big sensation here is a foregone conclusion. The remainder of the bill includes the Mutual War Weekly and a funny comedy called "The Drummer's Trunk." Coming next week, "Triangle" feature photoplays, including the famous Keystone comedies.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Blanche Sweet in Secret Orchard and Three Fine Acts Today.

There will be three excellent acts of vaudeville on the programme for the first three days of the week, including the Three Harmony Girls in a dainty song diversion, Dynes and Marshall, presenting a most original and interesting act, and Frank Ward, who has a nifty dancing specialty.

On the picture programme the Paramount picture will be Blanche Sweet in "The Secret Orchard," Miss Sweet, who is appearing as a star exclusively in the photoplay productions of the Lasky Feature Play company, has added to her list of notable characterizations another part, that of Diane in "The Secret Orchard," which is from the play of Channing Pollock, founded on the novel of the same name by Agnes and Egerton Castle.

The picture play recently was completed at the Hollywood, Cal., studio of the Lasky company, one of the finest photoplay production companies in the world.

This is Miss Sweet's fifth appearance in Lasky productions, and in the order of their release through the Paramount Pictures corporation, being "The Warrens of Virginia," "The Captive," "Stolen Goods" and "The Clue."

As the star in the play "Miss Sweet," she has the support of an excellent cast, including Miss Leo Ridley, who recently was engaged as a permanent member of the Lasky organization; Gertrude Keller, Cynthia Williams, Marjorie Davis, Loyola O'Connor, Edward Mackay, Carlyle Blackwell, Theodore Roberts and Cydney Deane.

Daughter of one of the stars of the Parisian demi-monde, the heroine of "The Secret Orchard," carried from birth a hidden taint of character, the more concealed because of the contrasting sweetness of her nature and the beauty of her personality. From a convent in which her mother had placed her as a child, to escape the perils of the Paris environment, Diane, the daughter, steps into the world ignorant of her hidden weakness. Innocently, she falls victim to the Duke of Cluny, whose wife, ill-natured to the core, subsequently takes the girl into her home. Recognition between the duke and Diane is further complicated by a love affair between the girl and the duke's American naval officer. The subsequent stirring scenes are brought to a happy and reasonable conclusion.

As produced by the Lasky company, "The Secret Orchard" is the acme of the photoplay art.

The Universal comedy for today and Tuesday will be "Eddie's Little Love Affair," by the Nestor company.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

The big feature programme for today is headed by "The Tangle" in four parts and is one of the Vitagraph's masterpieces with an all-star cast. Hearst Weekly, with all the latest war news, timely happenings and latest fashions.

A Safe Investment, a comedy which is bound to make you lose the blues, completes the bill for today.

NORWICH TOWN

Rev. G. H. Strouse and First Baptist Singers Furnish Christmas Service at Sheltering Arms—Andrew B. Davies Buys Underwaist House.

Rev. G. H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church on the West Side, was at the Sheltering Arms Sunday afternoon Christmas service. The world is suggestive of the season, as was the text chosen. Let us go even unto Bethlehem. The world is suggesting its way to Bethlehem, he said. The best people in the world, scientists, philosophers, the greatest and the least, are now going to Jesus. Christ came to come as a little child, to grow up acquainted with our joys and griefs, that He might be our High Priest. With every Christmas the interest in Christ is increased, every Christmas brings new joy, new aspiration. Everything about the coming of Jesus was marvelous; all the wealth of Solomon could not compare with His glory. What will it be when Jesus comes again? He is coming to finish His work, to make peace on earth. Our salvation depends upon the Christ, not upon our feelings. Jesus Christ is ever the same, eternal life depends upon our faith in Him. Our plan of security in the Jesus who was born 1900 years ago be yours during this Christmas season.

Familiar hymns were sung sweetly by the young people from the church, accompanied by Miss Vera Stetson, violinist, with Miss Ruth Phillips at the piano.

Andrew B. Davies Buys Underwaist House.

A. B. Davies of Grove street has purchased the house on Washington street recently occupied and owned by Mrs. Peter Vanderveer and with his mother and sister will soon move there.

Live Wire Down.

At noon in Saturday's wind and rain storm an electric light wire fell on Fitch's Corner. It proved to be a live wire, but luckily no injury resulted, as the wire was cut before it could take hold of it. Other wires were down at Meehan's Corner on West Town street. A force of men were soon at work repairing them. In the afternoon the Yantic river began to overflow its banks on the flats.

Skating Challenge Accepted.

Arthur Monty of Sturtevant street has accepted the challenge of Albert Barry of Taftville for ice skating. Mr. Barry was to have given an exhibit in roller skating at Scotland Road hall Friday evening had the weather proved favorable.

Hoard and Seen.

Two large trees on East Town street were cut down last week.

Miss Flora M. Terrill of Washington street will spend the next few days in New York.

Mrs. Josephine Parker of Plain Hill spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Norman.

Because of the stormy evening the entertainment did not begin at Scotland Road hall Friday evening.

There were many skating parties on the ice at the Yantic river last night. Saturday's low water rain ends this pastime for the present.

OPPOSITE POLES OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL LIFE

Appeared on Same Platform at Recruiting Meeting Held in London.

London, Dec. 19, 4.47 a. m.—Lord Derby, directly after the speaker, Lord Tillet, secretary of the Dockworkers' union, representing the opposite poles of social and political life, appeared on the same platform in a recruiting meeting here today, when Tillet described his recent visit to the British front. The Earl of Derby, who presided, said in introducing the speaker: "When it comes to the question of the number of men who have enlisted, I must not anticipate in any way what will be said tonight by the speaker, but I think the country will feel when he makes that statement that the heart of the country is right."

PRISONERS PLANNED TO ESCAPE CHRISTMAS EVE.

Plot Discovered by Officials of House of Correction on Deer Island.

Boston, Dec. 19.—A plan by which three prisoners in the house of correction on Deer Island hoped to escape on Christmas eve was thwarted through discoveries made by Carleton L. Brett, warden of the institution, and David B. Shaw, penal commissioner. According to Brett, the three men, all considered by the authorities as dangerous criminals, had conspired to break out of the institution. Brett and Shaw, who had been informed by other prisoners that an attempted break was under way, concealed themselves in the building with the three men and overheard their discussion of their plans. Brett said that this conversation revealed that the men had intended to climb into the open on Christmas eve, when they were to be met at the shore by a boat with a boat to be furnished by another prisoner whose term was to expire that day.

BANK DIRECTORS FOUND GUILTY OF NEGLIGENCE.

National City Bank of Cambridge, Wrecked in 1909.

Boston, Dec. 19.—Five directors of the National City bank of Cambridge, which was wrecked in 1909 by George W. Coleman, a bookkeeper, now serving a prison term, were found guilty of negligence by Judge Bingham in the federal court here yesterday. Under this decision depositors of the bank will recover approximately $265,000. Directors held responsible by Judge Bingham are Sumner Dresser, George W. Gale and David A. Barbour. Two other directors, Edwin Dresser, who died in 1909, and George F. Richardson, have died since the suits were instituted, and the court directed that judgments be entered against their estates.

William J. Keilher, a friend of Coleman's, was convicted as an accomplice and is serving an 18 year term in prison.

MANY TROUBLES DUE TO WEAK KIDNEYS

"It is no use advertising a medicine unless the medicine itself is good enough to back up the claims you make for it. On the other hand, it is a pleasure for druggists to sell a medicine when customers come in afterward and tell how much good it has done them. And that is why druggists like to sell and recommend Solvax, the great kidney remedy. Ever since we first introduced Solvax drug clerks have been busy selling it that it is sometimes hard to keep a sufficient stock on hand. Moreover, Solvax is always sold on a positive guarantee of relief to the kidney sufferer or money back. This may seem rash, but users have said so many good words in favor of Solvax that it is not expected that many packages will be returned."

This shows great faith in Solvax. It really is a most unusual medicine because it overcomes the worst cases of kidney complaints, such as rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, backache, etc. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys, making them pass off all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatic pains, sooths and heals the bladder and quickly ends all such troubles.

Nothing is more uncomfortable or hurts a person's perfect enjoyment of life, more than a weak kidney. Use Solvax and begin to get your full measure of benefit out of life. Sold by Lee & Co., food and other leading druggists in this vicinity.

Congress Asked to Provide Them by Chief of Corps, General Scriven.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Congress has been asked to provide one hundred motorcycles for the use of the army signal corps, because events of the European war has disclosed the great value of these machines.

In his annual report to Congress, General Scriven, chief of the corps, says: "Our own experience, wherever considerable bodies of troops have been consolidated, has shown the value of the Mexican border, has confirmed this idea."

He proposes the organization of motorcycle stations on the coast.

The signal corps is now short 35 officers and 392 men of the personnel necessary for its work, the report states, for a standing army of 150,000 men would need 175 officers and 3,353 men.
